Youth Group member

learn about the legislative process

Youth Legislative Day gives students the opportunity to study a process that effects their local community and interact with the people that should be considering their needs when making decisions.

Marty Cowboy
Omaha City Prosecutor

Youth Legislative Day allows

high school students to expand their understanding of state government and develop the knowledge, confidence and ability to discuss current issues facing youth in Nebraska.

Students observing a legislative floor debate meet with Nebraska state senators

Students have the opportunity to

- Meet with their senators
- Share concerns on issues affecting their community
- Ask their senators questions about the legislative process
- Inform lawmakers on the negative effects of underage drinking did you know?

Nebraska's unicameral legislature, which is unique in the U.S., was created in 1934.
